

The method for preparation of the dosage form for parenteral administration comprises mixing active substances and excipients. First, Trometamol is mixed with water. To this solution, alpha-lipoic acid is added. Also, taurine, polyethylene glycol 400 and benzyl alcohol are added.